Dear Rosemary and Phil:

The subject of the Carbondale Post Office relocation was very well covered in THE CARBONDALE NEWS of January 12, 1983. Barbara Wrobleski's page one report ("Postmaster says new post office will be built; Moro makes suggestions") is excellent. Given my interest in Carbondale's history--that which has already been written and that which is presently being written by writers such as Barbara Wroblewski--I am especially pleased when I read texts about Carbondale in which abundant details and direct quotations are incorporated in a succinct statement of the "big picture." My congratulations to Barbara.

Thank you for your editorial ("Public meetings can be beneficial when properly organized," January 12, 1983, p. 4) about the January 6, 1983 meeting of the Carbondale Historical Society. Given the success of the meeting, the Carbondale Historical Society has decided to sponsor other public meetings, perhaps on a quarterly basis, at which matters of general community interest can be discussed, in a non-political forum, by the citizens of Carbondale.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell
